A ROMANTIC NIGHT IN NIN, EUROPE'S MOST ROMANTIC DESTINATION

The town founded by the ancient Romans, a coronation place for Croatian kings, whose streets still abound in preserved monuments of those times - Nin. The romantic night, organised by the Nin Tourist Board, is an opportunity for visitors to experience the beauty and magic of this small royal town. On this evening, the Romans and Croatian kings will return to Nin, accompanied by music at several venues all over the town, and romantic couples will be able to leave their messages on a memory wall or buy roses from our fairy in order to participate in a prize draw. All this and many more surprises await you in Nin - Europe's most romantic destination.
